PREFACE.

MUCH of the early history of Cambridge has centred in the church and parish of Great St Mary. The churchwardens' book, which is here printed and is the earliest now in the keeping of the parish authorities, is therefore a document of great importance to students of local history. The Council of the Antiquarian Society agreed to publish it if transcribed, and after a very long interval it now appears.

Copious extracts were printed by the late Mr Sandars and Canon Venables in their "Historical and Architectural Notes on the Church," published by the Society in 1869, and the MS. was largely used by the late Mr Charles Henry Cooper in his invaluable "Annals of the Borough," but the book touches on so many subjects of interest that the full transcript will justify its appearance.

It may be stated here that this is the first of a series of parish account books which extend to the present time. The Vicar and parishioners take much interest in these and other documents in the church chest and preserve them with all care. The thanks of the Society and transcriber are due to them for allowing the volume to be removed for the purpose of transcription, and for the facilities they have given for reference to it many times in the course of the work.

Professor Skeat and the Rev. Edmund Gough de Salis Wood have been good enough to give their help in the glossary, and Mr William Henry St John Hope, Assistant Secretary to the Society of Antiquaries, has also put his stores of knowledge on such subjects at the disposal of the editor. The Rev. Henry Paine Stokes, LL.D., Vicar of St Paul's, Cambridge, kindly solved the last difficulty in the glossary by furnishing the explanation of the position of the Shraggerey in Cambridge in time to include it in the index.

The correctness of the copy is vouched for by the fact that it has been compared with the original by Mr Alfred Rogers, of the University Library, both in MS. and in proof, a precaution the more necessary as the accounts of each year are mostly in different hands and were entered evidently by the churchwardens themselves, whose writing was of all qualities, but generally bad. The staff of the University Press have also shewn themselves as capable as ever of dealing with the difficulties caused possibly by similar qualities in the handwriting of the editor.

Members of his household have also encouraged the editor in a long task by transcribing important portions of the MS. themselves, and to them and their memories he offers his tribute of gratitude.

The editor hopes to issue subsequently some notes on the book, but is anxious not to delay the appearance of a work which may be useful to students in so many different directions, and these will appear therefore as a separate tractate.

ffor that wee fynde much trouble from yeare to yeare in choosing of Churchwardens, and that few men of sufficiency will vndertake the same, in regard of the smalnes of the fyne heretofore payd and thereby breedeth a great inconvenience and distast to the Parishioners.

Also it is agreed by the generall consent of y^e^ Company of this Parish then present; That whereas it hath bene a custome for the Churchwardens new elected to paye the overplus of the charge of the breakefast; Every man that hath borne office of Churchwarden & being present at the said breakefast paying xij^d^ and the others that have not borne that Office paying vj^d^

That from henceforth the said overplus above the mony receaved of the particuler persons as aforesaid shalbe borne out and allowed to the Churchwardens for that yeare, of the generall stock of the parishe, So that the charge of the breakefast, doe not amount to above the summe of fower poundes
